Engraved Invitation

Ben Harper

I wish, I was a thought
I'd run all through your mind
And come out bein' everything
You ever tried to find
Life's the longest picture
You're ever gonna take
Love's the longest promise
That you're ever gonna break
It's an engraved invitation
To leave all this time we've been wastin'
I wish, I could yell sorry
Louder than I screamed
All of those other things
I said but didn't mean
Some days I'm the Lord's servant
Some days I'm Satan's pawn
Some days I just wish
The voices in my head were gone
It's an engraved invitation
To leave all this time we've been wastin'
The sun's a moon that warms you
The moon's a sun with no heat
The sky above is to remind you
What's under your feet
This life's not big enough
To fit our love inside
'Cause I remember you from heaven
The last time I died
It's an engraved invitation
To leave all this time we've been wastin'
It's an engraved invitation
