I Don't Wanna Believe

Hinder

From everything I've seen,
Everything good just goes away.
I never had a taste of heaven without a little hell to pay.
All I ever needed was someone to give instead of take.
But something about you makes it right to give it one more try.
And I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
But I'm ready to fall if you're the one that I'm falling to.
And tell me I'm the one cause baby I don't wanna waste another day.
I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
Never been so scared,
I was going nowhere but now you're here.
Holding you too tight,
pushing you away is my darkest fear.
I don't wanna break you,
I don't wanna make you disappear.
I fought every kind of pain,

but you take it all away.
And I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
But I'm ready to fall if you're the one that I'm falling to.
And tell me I'm the one cause baby I don't wanna waste another day.
I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
I'm giving you what's left of me
So you can put me back together
You're giving me what I needed all along
And I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
But I'm ready to fall if you're the one that I'm falling to.
And tell me you're the one cause baby I don't wanna waste another day.
I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
But I'm ready to fall if you're the one that I'm falling to.
I don't wanna believe if I can't believe in you.
But I'm ready to fall if you're the one that I'm falling to.
