Why Should I

Tom Faulkner

Why should I feel any different?
Arms have held me indifferently before, why not yours?
Love's touch lives in the shadow
The wind blows and it's there
But who knows how or why it endures?Oh, I, I shouldn't have seen this coming
'Coz I, I couldn't conceive this end
I let somebody, let somebody into my life
They led me 'round and led me down
It won't be that easy againWhy should I take to another?
A life I now lead as alone is not so bad after all
There's plenty a time no confusion
No one around, no need to know
When everything's got to fallWhoa, I, I shouldn't have seen this coming
'Coz I, I simply don't think that way
I let somebody, let somebody into my life
And they led me 'round and led me down
It won't be that easy againWhen thunder comes calling, I crawl back inside
Where I distance myself from the rain
With single so simple, it seems such a shame
But I still wanna go back againWhoa, I, I shouldn't have seen this coming
'Coz I, I couldn't conceive this pain
I let somebody, let somebody into my life
And they led me 'round and led me down
It won't be that easyIf I let somebody, let you someday into my life
Please don't lead me 'round and let me down
I can't do this over again

Songwriters
Thomas FaulknerPublished by
SONGS OF WINDSWEPT PACIFIC;TESUQUE TUNES

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/