

Pirates Reprise

Chris Garneau

We don't want you pirates anymore
We don't want you pirates anymore

We don't want these to do, what are they for.
We don't want you pirates anymore.

We want to let them outside, the cats we let outside
We lend, we lend, them a side to cry
Girls we lend them a side.
And then we set our hearts aside.
