

Laying Low

Danielle Bradbery

I wanna put on a record
I never heard before
Shut off my phone and lock the door
Drink every world like a bottle of wine
Till my soul's so drunk it's passed out on the floor
Tonight I'm laying low
I'm laying low
In a world that moves so fast
We forget to take it slow
Don't wanna look in the mirror
Wonder where did she go
So I'm taking my time
Tonight I'm laying low
Don't wanna put on any makeup
Don't wanna brush my hair
Leave these high heels off my feet and just not care
Wanna dance to the rhythm of the raindrops
Falling on the rooftop now
They're easy to miss when everything's so loud
Tonight I'm laying low
I'm laying low
In a world that moves so fast
We forget to take it slow
Don't wanna look in the mirror
Wonder where did she go
So I'm taking my time
Tonight I'm laying low
Wanna take a deep breathe in
And just let it go
Tonight I'm laying low
I'm laying low
In a world that moves so fast
We forget to take it slow
Don't wanna look in the mirror
Wonder where did she go
So I'm taking my time
Tonight I'm laying low
I'm taking my time
Tonight I'm laying low
