Escape Artist Blues

Eef Barzelay

If Im to escape from this
From you I will need a kiss
Slip me the key with your tongue
And the breath that I crave from your lungs'Cause Ive laughed in the face of it
Gravity never quits
A vanishing I will be
With invisible strings youll seeThen I heard a gentle rain
But it was just you in the back
In the water your skin did glow
As I untied the knots too slowIf Im to escape from this
From you I will need a kiss
Slip me the key with your tongue
And the breath that I crave from your lungs
And the breath that I crave from your lungs
