

Something Changed

Sara Groves

Something changed inside me
Broke wide open, all spilled out
Till I had no doubt
That something changed
Never would have believed it
Till I felt it in my own heart
In the deepest part
The healing came
And I cannot make it
And I cannot fake it
And I can't afford it
But it's mine
Something so amazing
In a heart so dark and dim
When the walls fall down
And the light comes in
And I cannot make it
And I cannot fake it
And I can't afford it
But it's mine
And I cannot make it
And I cannot fake it
And I can't afford it
But it's mine
And I cannot make it
And I cannot fake it
And I can't afford it
But it's mine, but it's mine
But it's mine
Oh, thank You, Lord
Thank You, Lord, thank You, Lord
[Incomprehensible]Something changed inside me
Broke wide open, all spilled out
Till I had no doubt
That something changed
