

Pena De Los Amores (2016 Remastered)

Linda Ronstadt

written by Jose Luis Almada
Que pena de las palabras que se callaron
Y aquellas que pronunciadas, estan perdidas
Que pena de primavera sin flor ni canto,
Que pena de algun verano sin golondrinas
Que pena de algunos besos que no se han dado
Y aquellos labios dispuestos pero ya escondidos
Que pena de las estrellas que se apagaron
En medio de alguna noche mal encendida
Que pena de las promesas que se quedaron
Bailando con los recuerdos en una esquina
Que pena de los amantes que se dejaron
Sin darse siquiera un beso de despedida
Que pena de los amores que ya pasaron
Que pena de los amores que no existan
Que pena de los amores que me olvidaron
Que pena de los amores que se me olvidan
Love's Sorrows
What a pity that those words were never spoken
And those that were, have been lost
What a shame that spring had no flower and no song
How sad that summer had no swallows
What a pity that some kisses were not given
What a shame that those lips that were ready were hidden
How sad that some stars burned out
In the middle of a dark night
What a pity that those promises just lingered on Dancing with memories in a corner
How sad that lovers parted
Without even a good-bye kiss
How sad that love has gone
How sad there is no love
How sad that I have been forgotten by those who once love me
How sad that I can't remember those that I once loved
