Salamandre

Sarah Harmer

Salamander, Salamander
You have to help me understand
All the mysteries of the forest,
The secret map, the golden tree
I'm waiting for you patiently
SalamanderSalamander, Salamander
The two of us together
My solitude and boredom
Disappeared overnight
I've led a lonely (slow) life for so long.
SalamanderIt's true, one day I'll be King
All of France awaits me
Every word I say will be made law
But for now, my only friend
Please come quickly, I beg you.
SalamanderSalamander, Salamander
The night is approaching, I think
The moon will be our candle
Welcome to my new life
Our adventures await us
My Salamander
