Stormy Waters

Ash

Can't seem to turn aside
These thoughts are yours or mine
I stayed up all night to see the dawnThe air was cold, the sky was grey
With shades of light
I stayed up all night to see the dawnShe takes me under stormy waters
Cradles my head as sleep comes on
I'll drown in her eyes, dream in daylight
Wakes again in her twilightShe left to write more silly words
She doesn't know
I stayed up all night to see the dawnAwake too long my skin will crawn
It's serpentine
I've been up all night to see her dawnShe takes me under stormy waters
Cradles my head as sleep comes on
I'll drown in her eyes, dream in daylight
Wake again in her twilightAlarm bells ring, it's nearly nine
I'm too alive
I've been up all night to see the dawnDefenses dropped, I'm so aware
Of passing time
I been up all night to see the dawnI'll be submerged in passing tides
As senses fade into the night
I stayed to see her dawnShe takes me under stormy waters
Cradles my head as sleep comes on
I'll drown in her eyes, dream in daylight
Wake again in her twilightShe takes me under stormy waters
Cradles my head as sleep comes on
I'll drown in her eyes, dream in daylight
Wake again in her twilight
