

Love Theme From Sharky's Machine

Sarah Vaughan

There's no sin he hasn't sinned.
His life's a candle in the wind,
Always hanging by a thread
With eyes cold and dead.
His world is neon lights,
Lonely streets and empty nights.
The only dreams left to find
Are in the shadows of his mind.

But Somewhere, Some way,
Someone, Some day
Will show him love and then
He'll start to live again.

Sometime, Some place,
Somehow, Some face
Will look with eyes of love and turn his world around,
Turn it upside down.

There's not a song he hasn't heard.
For him love is just a word.
It's a deadly game he's in
With no chance to win.

But Somewhere, Some way,
Someone, Some day
Will show him love and then
He'll start to live again.
Somewhere, Some way,
Someone, Some day
Will show him love and then
He'll start to live again.
Somewhere, Some way, (start to fade out)
Someone, Some day

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>