

This Day

Duncan James

Yesterday the sky was bright and clear
I could see the sun and I could hear the song
 Faith flowed like a river free and deep
 And grace was not so hard to be believed
 But that was yesterday
 And what was close enough to touch
 Now seems a world away
 So what about this day
 This day all His mercies are new
 This day every promise is true
 Father, help me to believe
 Give me faith I need to know You
 And trust You this day, this day
 Who knows what tomorrow's light will bring
 Tears to cry or maybe songs to sing out loud
 But only God can see that far away
 And he made us for living day by day
 'Cause he wants us to see
 That the God that He's been everyday of history
 Is who He is this day
 This day all His mercies are new
 This day every promise is true
 Father, help me to believe
 Give me faith I need to know You

 And trust You
 'Cause You are the same yesterday and today and forever
 Through every season Your truth and Your grace never change
 Oh Lord, I do believe that the God
 That You've been everyday of history
 Is who You are this day
 This day, this day
 This day Your mercies are new
 This day Your promise is true
 This day my hope is in You, Lord
 This day, oh yea
 This day all Your mercies are new
 This day every promise is true
 Father, help me to believe

Give me faith I need to know You
And trust You
This day all Your mercies are new
This day your every promise is true
Father, help me to believe
Give me faith I need to know You
And trust You this day
I'm gonna trust you this day, yea
This day, yea
