

Rock!

All Heroes

Take to the skies, build us a new heaven
Of worthless lies, from a new spokesperson
Anything for gold, you'll do anything for gold
You'll do anything you're told
What happened to all the good love songs on the radio?
Where do we go when the music's gone
And there's nothing to hold onto?
Don't leave, don't leave
Take to the streets, with paper magazines
Songs still playing, but your lips aren't moving
Anything for love, you'll do anything for love
You'll do anyone for love
What happened to all the good love songs on the radio?
Where do we go when the music's gone
And there's nothing to hold onto?
And there's nothing to hold onto?
And there's nothing to hold onto?
Don't leave, don't leave, no
