

Kobe Bryant

John Caponera

[Kobe talking]

I want to be the best

I want to be the best, simple and plain

That's why I play the game

And to be the best you have to win

And that's what drives me

[NBA analyst talking]

He's the best player in the game

It's just that simple

There's nothing that Kobe Bryant can't do

He will defend your best player

He will shoot from the perimeter

He will get all in yo mug

He will do whatever it takes

He is the most complete basketball player

In the game today - bar none

He has an assassin's mentality

I said this week, I said this when the trade went down

And I will repeat it again

Who's starving more for an NBA World Championship

More than Kobe Bryant? There is no one

This guy is highly motivated

What separates Kobe from the pack?

More than Kobe Bryant, there is no one

[Lil' Wayne]

OK

Kobe doin' work

Two-four on my shirt

He the greatest on the court

And I'm the greatest on the verse

Going for the 4th ring like it was his first

Gotta get the bling

Do it for Kareem!

Two-four so nice, my flow so mean

Catch me at the game sitting next to Goldestein

Kobe Bryant Nikes, purple gold strings,

Kobe in the game dunking on your team

Black Mamba, attack conquer

Basketball beast, rap monster

Crossover good, a turnaround jumper
Or just drive the lane and dunk on dunkers
You know where it's going, it's going down yo
This is the Lakeshow, but don't drown though
I call him King Bryant, now let the crown show

[Talking]

I'm definitely, I'm just lost for words

I mean, he's amazing

[Lil' Wayne]

Pass me the damn ball

I don't need a pick at all

And don't worry 'bout my shot

'Cause I'ma get that off

Yea, I drops 40 on your double team

Then I drop 81 on another team

Yeah, you better guard me with caution

And watch I work 'em like a auction

No such thing as exhaustion

No time for resting

'Cause I don't take breaks

I just break records

And I prefer the ball with 3 seconds

And I bet we gon' win it all in 3 seconds

Ya dig? That is a guarantee

Apparently

And please tell your defense

Don't ever man to man with me

Double team, triple team

Your defenders sick of me

But, I never let 'em get to me

Literally

Step back and give 'em a three

Ain't no defending me

[Reporter talking]

One guy certainly envious of the way Bryant's playing lately

LeBron James

[LeBron James talking]

I've been recorded saying that

He's definitely the best player in our league

Um, to me, in my eyes

The best scorer in our league

And there's not another guy in our league

That can accomplish some of the things

That he's doing

[Lil' Wayne]

Never take a day off
Catch you at the top of the key
And get a J off
Baseline facetime
Tongue out like two-three
Even two-three gotta love how I do me
Practice while you sleep
Practice in my sleep
Straight outta high school
Tha brackets ain't for me
I will be jumping over you
Like I got a mattress at my feet
And all the Phil Jackson teams
Better be passing it to me
I put the master in the beast
Attack you like a beast
I am starving for victory
And that means I'ma eat
And when they ask you who's the best
Then the answer should be me

[Elie Seckbach talking with Mikael Pietrus]

Reporter: Who's the best player in the NBA?

Mikael: Um, I'll say Kobe Bryant.

Reporter: Really? Why?

Mikael: Because you never know what you're gonna get

[Lil' Wayne]

Call me Mr. Clutch or Mr. Automatic
I can post 'em up, or Lamar go get the alley
I'm going for the ring
I'm going for the ring
I went to Beijing
And came back with the bling
Who they want? They want Kobe
And what he want? He want the trophy
The victory
And the glory
No Shaq

No Robert Horry

Now break 'em off, Kobe break 'em off
You better be where that Laker don't Yea, just give him the ball and he take it off
Or he properly dishing it to Gasol
Or give it to D-Fish on the wing, yeah
Or just let lil' Ariza do his thing, yeah

'Cause I'm great, and so is my team, yeah

[I thought you want to be the greatest]

Do it for Magic

It's show time baby

I see nothing wrong with doing it four times baby

I'm the best yes

And he the best yeah

Don't worry LeBron - get 'em next year

Now what's defense,

To an assassin?

Killer instinct

Murder the basket

Then steal the ball back

Hold it for ransom

It's more than a game

This is a passion

Been a all-star, been a champion

Free throw line, you hear 'em chanting

MVP, MVP

Kobe Bryant aka Envy Me

In knee deep, smash any D

Whoever he is he can't guard me

He can't guard me

[Elie Seckbach]

So, there you have it. The overwhelming answer was - Kobe Bryant
