

Dragging Dead Bodies In Blue Bags Up Really Long H

Escape the Fate

Non fiction don't believe The chances I have to take Betrayal at its best is always second guessed Try I am hating
The pressure so give me a reason now It's been so long and I've waited I've been waiting for so long don't fight
it's hard to breathe when you're buried alive you take this place for granted and you realize it's never enough I've been waiting so long this will never end The reflection of false hope we kept the secrets in the dark and the values of our brothers inside the shadows I can see, can see me perfectly their ratio is ten to 0 It's been so long and I've waited I've been waiting for so long
don't fight
it's hard to breathe when you're buried alive
you take this place for granted
and you realize it's never enough
this will never end Oh, we're on top of the world, let's go (let's go) we're on top of the world Oh (oh), we're on top of the world, let's go (let's go) we're on top of the world, let's go It's been so long and I've waited I've been waiting for so long
don't fight
it's hard to breathe when you're buried alive
and you realize it's never enough I've been waiting so long Your death is written on paper my heart is fueled by hatred, fueled by hatred dragging (dragging) dead bodies up really steep hills
