

Drained

Hypocrisy

Temples we promise
Slippin' away through pain
The fear of emptiness
Helpless, I'm being drained Through the anger of what I have seen
My life's getting perfect
Never I'll be free Out in-between eyes
Every other tear
Makes no difference
To hear now I'm [Incomprehensible] Through the anger of what I have seen
My life's getting perfect
Never I'll be free Temples we promise
Slippin' away, through pain
The fear of emptiness
Helpless, I'm being drained Through the anger of what I have seen
My life's getting perfect
Never I'll be free
