[Announcer]

What up Detroit,

I'd like to welcome everybody to the,
First Annual Detroit Hip-Hop Recognition Awards.

Secondly I'd like to thank you for coming out
And supporting all of our events this year,

Especially the Awards show,
That means a lot to us. [Proof 1]
The vision behind the Award show,
Is to recognize our own,
Talents, feats and accomplishments,
Both locally and nationally.

With the community a part of the success of people like,
Eminem, D12, Obie Trice, Slum Village, Fat Cat,
Sick Notes, Fat Killers, Almighty Dreadnaps,
Raw C and Silent Riot, just to touch on a few.
The first award we'll be presenting tonight,
Is the Hip-Hop Recognition Award [Proof 2]

This Award is to recognize
The individual for outstanding support of Detroit Hip-Hop.
When I think of that,

One person stands out without a doubt.
From the days of the Hip-Hop shop,
To the days of multi-platinum record sales,
You'll see this guy on MTV Wednesday night,
Then you'll catch him at St.Andrews Hall Friday night hosting a battle. [Proof 3]

He's been around the world,
And still finds time to get back to the city.
That being said, it's both a pleasure and an honour,
To present the first Annual Hip-Hop Recognition Award [Purple Pills starts playing],

To none other than my man, Big, Proof! [Proof 1]
Pssh, Damn man,
My city love me, I love my city man.
I feel like I'm lettin' 'em down,
I done so much,
But don't feel like I've accomplished, nothin' at all. [Proof 2]

Hip-Hop...
I remember when me 'n' Hip-Hop first fell in love man,
Detroit and Hip-Hop, damn, pssh. [Proof 3]

Psh, eh. 'Cause I aint changin' for shit.
I'ma always be me
