Pendulum

Embodyment

There's a hitch in the step
The tower is leading
Grown a thousand years
In a single heartbeatRipped and torn at the seams
Ripped and torn at the seams
Ripped and torn at the seams
Ripped and torn at the seamsHe falters to his knees
Clutching hands while in her dreams
He falters to his kneesSitting on weakness
So that strength can standHe falters to his knees
While angels spread their wings
He falters to his knees
Angels spread their wingsRest, my love
Rest, my loveRest, my love
Ride on the wings of sacred prayers
Aided by angelic forceRest, my love
Ride on the wings of sacred prayers
Aided by angelic forceRest, my love
Rest, my loveRipped and torn at the seams
Ripped and torn at the seams
Ripped and torn at the seams
Ripped and torn at the seams
