

Last Alone

Shaka Ponk

A Sound of glasses breakin'
Woke me up, early today suddenly
The walls started yellin'
"What da fuck!" I heard my father say Oh daddy! This place is crazy Should I be worry about you? Sure I got the body to Make some money out of the blue
Shake shake skake it
Before I break down baby
This place is crazy
Should I be worried about the future without you
Nobody told me, nobody holds me
I had to find out by my own that I'm here to last alone When I turned 16, I had to run away run away from my kin
It's such a mess here!
Living alone por la calle fallin to disgrace
I saw the real face of your humanity
It's pretty ugly Sure I got the body to Make some money out the blue
Shake shake skake it
Money money comes quick! Sure I got the pretty smile
Makin' everything lookin' right
Take take take it,
Before I break down baby
Nobody told me
Nobody holds me
I had to find out by my own that I'm here to last alone
Alone alone baby That I'm here to last alone
Alone alone baby
