

Can I Holla At Ya

J. Cole

(Intro)

One day youre gonna understandAye

Can I holla at ya?

Let me holla at ya(Verse)

Special, never forget the day I met you

We was destined for each other like a son to his mother

Or a sister and brother, man this bond is deep

We go a couple years and dont even speak but know its love though
Could never let them dirty your name, I got the up most respect for ya

Came back home and had the check for you

Word round town is you like down

Some older nigga snatched you up, gave you a right now

Damn, and could it be?

She like if you was me you wouldnt wait for me

Living sassy, wouldnt ask to break from me

Big city slicker nigga on a higher track

Bigger now but when she send a letter always write her back

And time revealed, she feels that she settled too soon

While she see me go for miles and she admire that

We speak about time as if we could just buy it back

If only it was that simple, damn I miss you(Hook)

Can I holla at you?

Can I holla at you?

Let me holla at you

Yea I know its been a while but aint no better time than now

Can I holla at you?

Can I holla at you?

Let me holla at you

Yea I know its been a while but(Verse)

You betrayed me

The day you played my mama you played me

Cant believe I let you in my heart nigga

I shouldve followed my instincts, a stranger in my house

Only 5 years old but since danger in my house

I was too young to strap you but damned if I didnt want to

Im blowing up fast and I hope these words haunt you

13 years, knew you more than my real pops

Put me on the pack and all the rappers that killed cops

Who wouldve thought that you would leave my mama high and dry?

Last words to a bitch nigga, why you lie?
Feelin bitter so these words might seem jumpy
But when you left I watched that lady crumble
I know by now you probably a old man
But still I feel I wont be satisfied until we throw hands for all the ass whooping
Heard you tryna talk to that punk, dont call
You aint shit and Im scared it rubbed of on me(Hook)
I holla at you
I holla at you
Let me holla at you
Yea I know its been a while but aint no better time than now
Can I holla at you?
Can I holla at you?
Let me holla at you
Yea I know its been a while but(Verse)
I heard you on that shit, I hope it aint true
Was hard to holla at you last time I came through
Could barely recognize you, nah nigga this aint you
Cuz you aint lookin like that nigga that I once knew
And plus you act like you dont know me
We was homies, now you call me by my rap name
See me do my thing so you expectin me to act strange
Aint hollin but you on my mind nigga
I wont forget the good times, nigga
White Ts in the club, jeans baggy as fuck
Sometimes I look back on my life,
That was the happiest stuff
We had potential to be monumental via mentality
You know that old killa beat? Kill mentality
I look at where you at now, its a real fatality
Cuz where you supposed to be is on top close to me
Chasin hoes like the old days but now we overseas
Dog congratulations on the scene
Yo my nigga!(Hook)
Can I holla at you?
Can I holla at you?
Let me holla at you
Yea I know its been a while but aint no better time than now
Can I holla at you?
Can I holla at you?
Let me holla at you
Yea I know its been a while but
