

Need Your Love (Live at the BBC)

Status Quo

I need your love every day
I need your love, need your love every day
I need your love, need your love, need your love
I need your love, need your love every day I, I need your love
I, I see your love
And now I'm here to take it
I'm glad I've had your love
It's not the greatest love
But it's alright with me, alright with me I need your love every day
I need your love, need your love every day
I need your love every day
I need your love, need your love, need your love My nights were getting longer
My dreams were getting old
I wasn't getting younger
My bed was getting cold
But it's all far behind me
I'm a really satisfied man My nights were getting longer
My dreams were getting old
I wasn't getting younger
My bed was getting cold
But it's all far behind me
I'm a really satisfied man I, I need your love
I, I see your love
And now I'm here to take it
I'm glad I've had your love
It's not the greatest love
But it's alright for me, alright for me
