

Time

Zebra

Time can never lose the game
Will never lose
Time can never feel the pain
Will never feel
There's a wheel that turns our fortunes
There's a light to lead the way
It's holding back tomorrow
From a destiny today I used to be so lonely
Never thought that I could find the time
Never thought that I could give it up
Ahhh It's back to
Here today
But never leave
Do what you want
Here today
Don't ever leave
It's what you want
It's here today
But never leave
Do what you want
Here today
But never leave Time, can never lose the game
Will never lose
Time, can never feel the pain
Will never feel From a love that's going nowhere
To a heart that feels the pain
It's holding back the forces
Of a destiny destined in vain I used to be so lonely
Never thought that I could find the time
Never thought that I could give it up
Ahhh It's back to
Here today
But never leave
Do what you want
Here today
Don't ever leave
It's what you want
It's here today
But never leave Say what you will

You can't shout it up and crowd it up and shout it on down Look around, look around It's what you want
It's here today
But never leave
Do what you want
Here today
Don't ever leave
It's what you want
It's here today
But never leave
Do what you want
It's here today
Don't ever leave me When you call me up
In the evening
And we're standing there in time
You can feel the wind,
Touch the stars
Leave our cares behind
We'll make love till the morning
