Individual

Epidemic

Here come the clones
There closing in on the near vicinity
There out to prolong, what has so long?
Been feeding off the ones who have no
Rules to uphold or a need to scold
We must exclude this individual
And saturate, negotiate an understandingDon't wanna be dependent on others
For what is missing
Don't know if it will ever be otherwise
Than it is now
We tip the scale and run
Identify with none other then
The ones who can't escape the noise withinBut can you tell how we alienate ourselves
We don't have to be phony
Act excited while we do not relate and will not Partake in orchestrated spontaneity
That you plan out and impose
But is now exposed
And the cheers have turned paleDon't wanna be dependent on others
For what is missing
Don't know if it will ever be otherwise
Than it is now
We tip the scale and run
Identify with none other than
The ones who can't escape the noise withinTry telling it to the ones
Whose back upon we like to dance
Succumb to the noise withinDon't wanna be dependent on others
For what is missing
Don't know if it will ever be otherwise
Than it is now
We tip the scale and run
Identify with none other than
The ones who cant escape the noise within Ohh, the noise within
