Looking At The Stars (FM Attack Remix)

Sally Shapiro

I was so young I can't deny
There's a story for the day
I let you down, you said don't go
You really wanted me to stay
I felt the pulse and tender show
I wanted to be your friend
You're the one who made me cry
I didn't want to say goodbyeI'm looking at the stars tonight
and only thinking of you
I'm looking at the stars tonight
And you can see that I'm too
I wish that you could feel my love
And I wish that I always can't
And I love you so much much more
Than I think I have ever saidI should have seen it in your eyes
You list a reason to them all
I didn't mean to let you down
And that you always be aroundWhen I was young I'd always cry
When you left me on my own
You're the one who made me cry
I didn't want to say goodbyeI'm looking at the stars tonight
And only thinking of you
I'm looking at the stars tonight
And you can see that I'm too
I wish that you could feel my love
And I wish that I always can't
And I love you so much much more
Than I think I have ever saidba ba ba, ba ba ba ba Ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba
ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba baI didn't want to say goodbyeba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba Ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba
ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba ba
ba ba ba ba, ba ba ba baDidn't want to say goodbye
