Live For Today

Night Ranger

We shared a time
You walked away
Never had a chance to tell you just how I felt
So we carried lies upon our minds
I could never find it to say goodbye....Goodbye..
All that I desire is that we leave here today
All that I require is that we live for today
So we carried on our own alone
You didn't even stop to question
What was, it's gone
I remember your eyes,
It's been so long
I can find the strength to carry on
Carry on,
Carry on

All that I desire is that we leave here today
All that I require is that we live for today
And I tried to erase you
But I'm left with a permanent stain
And it didn't even faze you
You know, all wounds heal in time, but scars remain
All that I desire is that we leave here today
All that I require is that we live for today
All that I desire is that we leave here today
Now we're together, it's now or never
We can only live for today
