Sanctuary

Michael English

My eyes Betray me Reason Escapes me
I Found Myself in the Wilderness Again
I believe some things, they can never change
Its good to know that your love is one of those things
You said that I can never wear my welcome out
_____CHORUS
I come to the Sanctuary I lay down all the weight I carry
Surrendering every single part of me
The one who knows all my secrets and finding all the broken pieces you give to me
Give to me another second chance
_____You go before me your hand restores me
And in your light my idols turn to dust
Spirit is willing always reminding
All I have is your grace and thats enough
I know that Ive been here a thousand times beforeCHORUSYou kindness and your mercy bring my innocence to me
And I find myself again when I fall down at your feetCHORUS (2X)
