The Blame by Wes Romaniuk

1st verse

I walked out one dark and stormy night
Left long before you could start an
Other fight
Know you won't understand cause
You are not that bright
Here's the way I feel since you
Turned out my light

Corus

Gave you all the love
You gave me all of the pain
Gave you all of the happiness
You gave me all of the blame
You gave me all of the blame

2nd verse

A life time has passed the pain is still inside
I think back to a time I want to run and hide
There were many many times I wish that you had lied
I look up to the sky for God to be my guide

Corus

Gave you all the love
You gave me all of the pain
Gave you all of the happiness
You gave me all of the blame
Gave me all of the blame

3rd verse

Life has a funny way of knowing who you are
Before you even know it you may have gone too far
Drinking to your sorrow Alone in a bar
I'll always know you for Who you really are

Corus

Gave you all the love
You gave me all of the pain
Gave you all of the happiness
You gave me all of the blame
Gave me all of the blame
Youâ€™re the one to blame
Youâ€™re the one to blame
Take away my pain
Take away my pain
Take away
My Pain
