

Anchors

Living Like Ghosts

It can't hold a candle to the nights
I spent singing my lungs out this is what I was always about I guess I'll carry the cross for the idea so many have lost
A shining example of what it was like to be young and I'm not changing My feet like anchors, burying me Until my ankles break I'll just stay in the sea
Just like anchors, burying me
I'm in so deep currents can't carry me I am left with nothing more
My chest has never been so sore
But when I believe in something
I stand my ground My feet like anchors, burying me
Until my ankles break I'll just stay in the sea
Just like anchors, burying me
I'm in so deep currents can't carry me I need your eyes and I need your ears for those who have heart, I'll make it clear I'm not waiting on bated breath Cause my heart is closing inside my chest sometimes you gotta believe to see There's no sleeping
When we keep dreaming
Never, how can we lose our way
When we're standing on the shoulders of giants
No east no west, put back your compass My feet like anchors, burying me
Until my ankles break I'll just stay in the sea
Just like anchors, burying me
I'm in so deep currents can't carry me These winds change but we never will Drifting away, we'll always stay
This is our home and we are never alone
