Just Once

Amel Larrieux

Little boat ,are you lost
Did the sea lead to nowhere
Are you faded, chipped and cracked
Need some tender loving care
Did a storm, break your course
Blow the wind out of your sails
Or do you stay close to shore
'cause you fear that you will failchorus
Every hour
Every minute
Every moment, happens just once
Every human
Every being
Every lifetime, happens just onceLittle friend, are you blue
'cause you're not like them at all
When you bend, to fit the box
Are you too big or too small
Do you lie to yourself
To make others comfortable
Or do you hide who you are
'cause it's unacceptableChorusAnd I don't know what comes after
But if this life is just a test
Everyone may not pass with flying colors
But everyone deserves some happinesschorus
