

Pollen Path

David Sylvian

Welcome me father on the North shores of Lapland
Welcome me father who knows no name
Welcome me mother the earth here is yawning
My body is shaking for want of a flame
Down here, got to laugh
The kickback is lightening
Drowning, got to laugh
This whole mess is frightening
A follower of the pollen path
The pollen path
Welcome me father the lava is rising
Welcome me mother and give me your name
We've drunk from this wellspring too long, too long
Dividing the hours to measure the time
We've lived with this heartache too long, too long
Numbering what's yours, what's mine
We've harbored this sadness so long
Nursing a voice, just sing us our songs
Raising a voice to sing our songs
