Gone

Switchfoot

She told him she'd rather fix her makeup Then try and fix what's going on But the problem keeps on calling Even with the cellphone gone She told him that she believes in living Bigger than she's living now But her world keeps spinning backwards And upside down Don't say so long You're not that far gone Don't spin today away 'Cause today will soon be Gone, like yesterday is gone Like history is gone Just try and prove me wrong And pretend like you're immortal She said, "He said, live like no tomorrow" Everyday we borrow brings us One step closer to the edge Infinity Where's your treasure, where's your hope If you get the world and lose your soul? She pretends like she pretends like She's immortal Don't say so long And throw yourself wrong This could be your big chance to makeup Today will soon be Gone, like yesterday is gone Like history is gone The world keeps spinning on Your going, going Gone, like summer break is gone Like Saturday is gone Just try and prove me wrong You pretend like you're immortal, you're immortal We are not infinite We are not permanent Nothing is immediate

We are so confident In our accomplishments Look at our decendence Gone, like Frank Sinatra Like Elvis and his Mom Like Al Pacino's cash Nothing lasts in this life My high school dreams are gone Like my childhood sweets are gone Life is a day that doesn't last for long Life is more than money Time was never money Time was never cash Life is still more than girls Life is more than hundred Dollar bills And roto-tom fills Life is more than fame And rock and roll and thrills All the riches of the kings end up in wills We've got the information in the information age But do we know what life is like Outside of our convenient Lexus cages? She said, "He said, live like no tomorrow" Every moment that we borrow Brings us closer to a God Who's not short of cash Hey Bono, I'm glad you asked Life is still worth living Life is still worth living Life is more than we are
