I'm Still Standing

Threering

Somewhere lost in time, I know I felt alive
But itâ€™s so far gone it doesnâ€™t seem real anymore
Falling apart inside
By demons, by design
A life redefined
But Iâ€™ve been dead behind these eyes

It's gonna take some time
It's gonna take some time

I'm still standing, holding on
Oh so beaten and withdrawn
You can make another way
You'll lose yourself today

Stranglehold by choice
Slowly losing my voice
Where it all went wrong, I can't remember
We all make it to the end
some twisted and bent on hell
All my last words to you now

It's gonna take some time
It's gonna take some time

I'm still standing
I'm still standing
Holding on
Holding on

I'm still standing, holding on
Oh so beaten and withdrawn
You can make another way
There's just no other way
I'm still standing, holding on
Oh so beaten and withdrawn
You can make another way
You'll lose yourself today
