Compromise

Moniece Slaughter

Whoâ€™s gonna say it first when weâ€™re both so tired of bending I done lost count of how many times sometimes it hard working through the dirt but I rather get dirty then end this right up to it but we never cross that line some days i just want to run away I donâ€™t want to hear your voice and I donâ€™t want you in my space when itâ€™s all and done you are my right when iâ€™m so wrong my reason to smile when I need one and the makeup is so worth the fight when we compromise sometimes I lose my head and I know you donâ€™t deserve that but baby imma promise that Iâ€™ll try to do better wish I could take back the things I said called myself trying to give you the hurt back iâ€™m sorry for the times that I just wouldnâ€™t let up somedays I know you want to run away cuz iâ€™m screa at the top of my lungs all in your face when itâ€™s all said and done you are my right when iâ€™m so wrong my reaso to smile when I need one and the makeup is so worth the fight when we compromise you want your way and I want mine iâ€™m ok with giving in this time cuz i love you to much and i donâ€™t want to lose you building a life together we can get through whatever long as we know for it to grow it takes time takes time you are my right when iâ€™m so wrong my reason to smile when I need one and the makeup is so worth the fight when we compromise when we compromise when we compromise
