

Running Home

Lmnt

I, I never gave her a reason
I just said I was sorry and I was going away
She said it's the end of the season
And then somethin' about changin', knowin' I couldn't stay
She said, "I know you must make your dreams come true
You must find your own way
But when the rain is fallin', you know where I will be
Where I can hear you callin', just come runnin' home to me
Don't matter where you're goin', won't matter where you've been
When there's a cold wind blowin', you can come runnin' home again"
She, she tried not to cry
She brought back the tears that She didn't want me to see, I whispered goodbye
Wonder if she knew how much she meant to me
She said, "I hope you make all your dreams come true
I know you'll find a way, you'll find a way
But when the rain is fallin', you know where I will be, I will be
Where I can hear you callin', just come runnin' home to me
Don't matter where you're goin', won't matter where you've been
When there's a cold wind blowin', you can come runnin' home again"
I know she is where I want to be, I want to be
Where my heart will always take me
When all the rain is fallin', gray skies are movin' in
I know who I'll be callin', I'm goin' runnin' home again
No matter where I'm goin', no matter where I've been
I always get there knowin', I came runnin' home again
I'll be runnin' home
When all the rain is fallin', gray skies are movin' in
I know who I'll be callin', I'm goin' runnin' home again
No matter where I'm goin', no matter where I've been
I always get there knowin', I came runnin' home again
When all the rain is fallin', gray skies are movin' in
I know who I'll be callin', I'm goin' runnin' home again
No matter where I'm goin', no matter where I've been
I always get there knowin', I came runnin' home again
