

The Advocate

For Today

To the ones with the broken dreams,
and to the ones lost and hopeless,
to the ones that stand up for what's right to the world; Come meet your king!

Let the generation with a broken heartache be restored!

Come meet your king!

Let the generation with a broken heartache be restored!

Come meet your king!

God help.

I declare over my generation restoration.
Under sin we fallen into the hands of deception.

Open our eyes, bring us back to life again!
Open our eyes, bring us back to life again!
Open our eyes, bring us back to life again!

God set our minds free.
Let us not be bound to this world.
God set our minds free.
Let us not be bound to this broken world!

But only You can bring us back.
Father, turn our hearts away from this world.
Only You can bring us back.
You are the only hope and so we run to You.

Break everything in your path!
Take Your rightful place in our lives!

Ahhhh!

Stand up high, God, take us from this side and we will never let up.

So now the stage is set and waiting for breakthrough.

Greater suffering is to come if You don't break everything.

Destroy the compromise of our flesh.

Come and break everything!

Bring with you liberty for the confused

Take and break everything!

Break everything in your path!
Break everything in your path!
Take your rightful place in our lives!
Break everything in your path!
Take your rightful place in our lives.
