

Cabaret (Jill Haworth)

Cabaret

What good is sitting alone in your room?
Come hear the music play.
Life is a Cabaret, old chum,
Come to the Cabaret. Put down the knitting,
The book and the broom.
Time for a holiday.
Life is Cabaret, old chum,
Come to the Cabaret. Come taste the wine,
Come hear the band.
Come blow your horn,
Start celebrating;
Right this way,
Your table's waiting
No use permitting
soem prophet of doom
To wipe every smile away.
Come hear the music play.
Life is a Cabaret, old chum,
Come to the Cabaret! I used to have a girlfriend known as Elsie
With whom I shared
Four sordid rooms in Chelsea She wasn't what you'd call
A blushing flower...
As a matter of fact
She rented by the hour. The day she died the neighbors came to snicker:
"Well, thats what comes from to much pills and liquor."
But when I saw her laid out like a Queen
She was the happiest... corpse...
I'd ever seen. I think of Elsie to this very day.
I'd remember how'd she turn to me and say:
"What good is sitting alone in your room?
Come hear the music play.
Life is a Cabaret, old chum,
Come to the Cabaret." And as for me,
I made up my mind back in Chelsea,
When I go, I'm going like Elsie. Start by admitting
From cradle to tomb

Isn't that long a stay.
Life is a Cabaret, old chum,
Only a Cabaret, old chum,
And I love a Cabaret!
