Lowell

Hi my name is name is LGBT,
Don't take out your misery on me,
On me, on me
I'm happy, I'm happy
And free, and free
I'm happy, I'm happy
And free
LGBT, LOVEOho, don't hate our love
Oho, don't hate our love
Oho, don't hate our love
Oho, don't hate our loveWhen I look into your eyes
I know that I am where I wanna be,
But he, he sings to me, he speaks to me
So sweetie,
Why are you afraid of how I feel?
LGBT, LOVEOho, don't hate our love
Oho, don't hate our love
Oho, don't hate our love
Oho, don't hate our loveSome old people wanna go back home
To the life where everyone pretending to belong
Some young people are smarter than the teachers
They teach us how we do belong
And some old people have arise
Looking forward embracing their role through the night
And some old people hate to change
Except when they're praying away the things they need to shame
And some young people say they aren't hypocrites
Say that they accept everyone and they help some
And some young people like to act like old people
Wearing bows ties and telling us we're wrong
And some old people don't remember when they were kids
And they never choose who they liked
That they liked who they did, they liked who they did
LGBT, LOVE
LGBT, LOVE
LGBT, LOVEOho, don't hate on me
Oho, don't hate our love
Oho, don't hate on me

Oho, don't hate our love
