I Decided

Solange

Ooooh
[spoken:]
Can't hear myself,
No00000
Can you please turn it up a little bit more[verse 1:]
I was a little different;
I didnt do what the fast girls do!
Study my rhythm.....
Now you can speed me up when you want to
Oooh-ohThey were too cool to run the race
You kept the pace put the smile on your face
Go 'head baby (Go 'head baby)
Then I knew he was you (Then I know he was you)
But first you took me around introduced me to your family&friends
And told them how once we met that we would never lose
Oh BoyI Decided
That you are the him for me
(I Decided)
Oh Boy
Because I decided
That you are the him for me
(yes you are)
Oh My BoyHow's it feel to win it?
When ain't no mountains that you can't moveYour mind is like a prism
For God's light to shine through
Oooh-oohThey were too cool to run the race
You kept the pace put the smile on your face
Go 'head baby (yeaa) (Go 'head baby)
Then I knew it was you (Then I know it was you)
But first you took me around introduced me to your family&friends
And told them how once we met that we would never lose (never lose, never lose)
Oh BoyI Decided
That you are the him for me
Oh Boy
Because,
I decided (I Decided)
That you are the him for me (You are the one for me baby yeah)
Oh My Boy (wow boy)Running me runnin me down
