Sky Poem

Coparck

This time and place need another name
The ultra future wave, the puzzled brainWhere the sea breeze blows
Where nobody knows
There's room for growth, the sky poemThe white collar zoo, the asphalt tattoo
The man without a clue, the other youConsumer rock, get some nude for thought
Don't bother to knock, I won't be inWhere all things wise and fair
Descend from shrouded air
With a supplementary rocket sleeveThe unlikely plot, serious, I was not Try degenerate the pleasure stateThe moon, marigolds, June on a stroll
A hatful of rain, a dry cafThe rubbish dump, the hardware slump
Catch the flow, the rain, the glowThis time and place need another name
