Save Me

Nathan O'Neal

A life, a past to grant
A mind that can't forget
A constant battle of who I was and who I wanna be
God will you bring me peace
Will you put my mind at ease?
From this constant battle of who I was and who you're making me.

Set me free
Break these chains that bind my hands and feet
I'm drowning in the sound of my mistakes
Once is lost now found
The man who I was is not who I am now
Erase my fear of yesterday
God I need your help
Lord save me from myself

Here I am again
Facing the life I lived
And the enemy is calling
Oh boy I'm never gonna win
God will you pull me thorugh
Cause' I'm holding on to you
Will you show you your mercy
Time and time again

Set me free
Break these chains that bind my hands and feet
I'm drowning in the sound of my mistakes
Once is lost now found
The man who I was is not who I am now
Erase my fear of yesterday
God I need your help
Lord save me from myself

Only you can wash away she says
When I'm with you I'm not afraid of letting go
I lift my hands to you alone
Because of who you are
The king of kings

I will lift my voice to sing that you have

Set me free
Broke these chains that bound my hands and feet
I was drowning in the sound of my mistakes
Once is lost now found
The man who I was is not who I am now
You erased my fear of yesterday

God I need your help
You saved me from myself
