Chapters

EVS & Atiq

I go to bed at night Wondering how I got here and you are not here...
I dream of the time we were together hovering, or bodies discovering side by side our carefree minds.Chorus But that was once upon a time and happily ever after it's time to start a new chapter and I can't stand to turn the page.
You taught me how to love and now I've got nothing to show for it the time we had was so short.
I can't stand to turn the page.I woke up to a beautiful day but somehow it didn't seem that way, as my memory fades, I can still hear you whisper I miss you.
And I hold on....to my song....and I sing just like I want it to beChorus
But that was once upon a time
and happily ever after
it's time to start a new chapter
I can't stand to turn the page.
You taught me how to love
and now I've got nothing to show for it
the time we had was so short.
I can't stand to turn the page.Finding our way finding our place going nowhere without a careChorus
But that was once upon a time and happliy ever after it's time to start a new chapter.
I can't stand to turn the page.
You taught me how to love
and now I've got nothing to show for it
the time we had was so short.

I can't stand to turn the page.
