They All Fall Down

Ten After Two

I can be as humble as the next guy
Or I can blink and make you crumble from the inside
I could be every nasty thing
You ever dreamt a man could be
'Cuz they all fall down, down
'Cuz they all fall down, down
I can make you see the beauty of a new sun
Or I could be the source of your desperation
I could be every nasty thing
You ever dreamt a man could be
'Cuz they all fall down, down
'Cuz they all fall down, down
Jaded, dated, I'm the type you hated
Haunted, taunted, I'm what you've always wanted
Yeah, yeah, I'm what you've always wanted
Yeah, yeah, I'm what you've always wanted
You can turn away like you don't even see me
Yeah, you can smile like you got something I need
But every night you go home alone
And dream about being underneath me
All fall down, down
'Cuz they all fall down, down
Jaded, dated, I'm the type you hated
Haunted, taunted, I'm what you've always wanted
Yeah, yeah, I'm what you've always wanted
Yeah, yeah, I'm what you've always wanted
Can't you see through this disguise
Find the little boy inside
I'm afraid of falling
Love is pain and now she's calling and she's
Jaded, dated, I'm the type you hated
Haunted, taunted, but I'm what you've always wanted
Yeah, yeah, I'm what you've always wanted
Yeah, yeah, I'm what you've always wanted
All fall down, down
All fall down, down
All fall down, down
All fall down, down
