Rancid

If the police come and tromp the state Reflect something of course you descend And there's a strait crisis and maley And gradually arodes world technology Let go, let go, let go, disgruntled And gradually arodes world technology And gradually arodes world technology Let go, let go, let go, disgruntled Fighting conflict, running fugitive Let go, let go, let go, disgruntled And gradually arodes world technology Let go, let go, let go, disgruntled If the police come and tromp the state And there's a strait crisis and maley
