

Sex

Eden

And I said "what's up? What you been thinking?"

'Cause you've been staring at that roof so long,

I swear it's come alive.

And she spoke 9 words, and I was sinking.

But I can't find it in myself to wanna lie,

Keep this thinking going down.'Cause I ripped up my heart.

And I don't want it back, no.

I'm laying down my cuts.

'Cause you said it meant nothing,

And I should have kept my silence.

But I guess I'm too attached to my own pride,

To let you know

That all these words meant nothing,

And I've always been this heartless.

But we're just having sex,

No, I would never call it love.But... Love...Oh, no. I think I'm catching feels and I...

I don't know if it's just empathy,

If it'll just... Hold on.

Remember why you said these words the last time.Ohhh. Hey yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

Ohh. So I guess this...

Woah. Hey yeah, yeah.

Woah, I gotta let it live.What's good, when both choice is a gun?

And we're staring down the barrel,

To the bullets I can't stop.

And so I stand off, like indecisions collide.

'Til this fear of feelings stops and I'm done.You know I don't know how to forget you.

No, I don't know how to forget you.

No, I don't know how to forget you.

No, I don't know how to forget you.No, I don't know how to forget you.

('Cause I ripped up my heart).

No, I don't know how to forget you.

(And I don't want it back).

No, I don't know how to forget you.

(No, I'm better keeping...).

No, I don't know how to forget you.

(...Stars).Oh, no. I think I'm catching feels and I...

I don't know if it's just empathy,

If it'll just... Hold on.

Remember why you said these words the last time.Ohhh. Hey yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

Ohh. So I guess this...

Woah. Hey yeah, yeah.

Woah, I gotta let it live.No, I don't know how to forget you.

No, I don't know how to forget you.

No, I don't know how to forget you.

No, I don't know how to forget you.
