Product Of My Environment

Circle Jerks

overheard drunks
sitting in bars
talking 'bout sex
talking 'bout cars talking 'bout football
women at lunch
they just keep talking but don't say muchi'm a product of my environment my vocabularies like licking the gutter words that cut so sharp cuts like a hot knife through butternot my fault but then again
schools and teachers were never my friends nothing's wrong with a little education but i don't need a new vocationi'm a product of my environment things that occur
events take place
that will wipe
the smile right off your face
