

The Quiet Ones

Turin Brakes

Keep your ear low to the ground
Can you hear the whisper the
Sounds of the lost and found
Mmmm, traces are all around
Always

The quiet ones you've got to watch
When you're asleep we're waking up
Stop... start over
Soon you'll plainly see
Oh who do you want to be
In this world
Always

When you're asleep we're waking up
You roll the dice, we ride our luck
This is our time, we've had enough
So keep your ears low to the ground
Can you hear the whispers, the
Sounds of the lost and found
Their traces are all around...
