

Woman In the Moon

Chely Wright

Another lonesome night
Staring at the sky
But I don't help to ease an aching heart
The man up in the moon
Keeps on talking himself blue
And once again I'm left here in the dark[Chorus]
Let me talk to the woman in the moon
I think I need another point of view
That ol' man up there
Doesn't seem to care
Let me talk to the woman in the moon Heaven's up above
I just want a little love
Cause I'm so tired of living all alone
Please lend a friendly ear
Cause I need some help down here
Somebody with the heart to be my own[Chorus] I can't help but look up there and wonder
Will I ever hold him in my arms
Please help me with this spell I've fallen under Cause I can't seem to find my lucky stars[Chorus] Let me talk to the woman in the moon
