Desperation

Micky & The Motorcars

Written by Willy Braun, Micky Braun, Dustin WelchTheres a lonely man thinkin about a long lost loveThe gleam in a young girls eyeThe content of a man just in from the coldWith a pretty young thing by his sideBut he threw it away like a lifetime wastedStill learnin what he ought to knowOnce a fresh young buck now hes down on his luckAnd the miles are startin to showChorus:So if youre looking for a little affectionDont go waiting for the timing to be rightThe trouble with romance is taking your chancesIn the desperation of a downtown nightTheres a lonely girl sitting with a chip on her shoulderFeeling that times runnin outThe dismay of a woman who never saw it comingNever knew what it was aboutThe confusion of a girl who watched as her whole worldCompletely unraveled at the seamsOnce the toast of the town now it all comes downTo findin the man of her dreamsChorusBridge:And when the lights go down and youre all aloneYou think youll never find love but you dont wanna go homeBut if youre looking for a little affectionDont go waiting for the timing to be rightThe trouble with romance is taking your chancesIn the desperation of a downtown night
