Catch Me When I Fall

Jully Black

Hum, oh noI've been living in fear not knowing where to turn
My world is getting small when you think love is near Somebody is there to tell you that your changing
Though I can't seem to explain, just why I can't get over
That you're gone away to a better place'Cause there's no one I can turn to
No one I can call
Nobody to catch me when I fallTook my days with you for granted
I'd give up everything to see your face for one more day
Though you're part of my existence
But I'm going to walk your walk
And never let your memory fadeShouldn't cry when I miss you
If you were here
You wouldn't tolerate me feelin' in pain
Callin' out your name'Cause there's no one I can turn to
No one I can call
Nobody to catch me when I fallSo why do the days keep on, passing me by
You were my inspiration, in you I confide
But I know that you need me to try 'cause you never quit
And would have a fit if I cried all nightOh noShouldn't cry when I miss you
If you were here
You wouldn't tolerate me feelin' in pain
Callin' out your name'Cause there's no one I can turn to
No one I can call
Nobody to catch me when I fall
No one I can call
Nobody to catch me when I fallSo I'm sending this prayer up you,
I know you can hear me from there
Sitting next to God's chair
You're my angel watching over
I only wish I could see you, feel you, say I love you'Cause there's no one I can turn to but you
