To Catch a Thief

Lovage

I feel that you shouldn't get involved in an intimate relationship
Until you are emotionally mature enough to handle it totally Able to cope with your feelings and your sexuality
Without guilt, inhibition or phoniness
But with love, tenderness and honestyThings were disappearing in my neighborhood
Once again somebody was up to no good
I saw that you were wanted
But not like I wanted youAnd that's when I knew I had to be with you
And that's when I knew if I didn't I'd be through
To end my grief I'd have to catch a thief
Your love is my relief, my love is your reliefCome into my window, it's open every night
That's where I'll be waiting, I'll keep off all the lights
I'm lying on my bed
Crown jewels on my headI'd never give you up
So come in from the cold, [Incomprehensible]
I'd hide you from the cops, don't be frightened now my love
I'll take the life of crime, all to make you mineCome in off that roof top, you're so handsome, dressed in black
See you in the shadows, I'd like to see you on your back
Take this precious treasure
And I will treasure youWe'll run away my dear, some place special have no fear
We'll even change our names
We'll be kinky, we'll be strange
I'll take the life of crime, all to make you mineAll to catch a thief
Your love is my relief, my love is your relief
Your love is my relief, my love is your relief
All to catch a thief
